How to Network - Leif Jensen and Associates

"How to Network" I am awful at this. I hate going into a room where I may kind of know only one or two people, or worse know no one in the room at all. But, I need to network to continue to grow my business.

Idiom of the Month Have an ax to grind

Meaning: To have a dispute or issue to take up with another person

Origin: Macbeth- It first appeared in a story in a Pennsylvania newspaper written by Charles Miner. The story related a tale from the author's youth, in which he was tricked by a stranger into using a grindstone to sharpen an ax. Since the stranger used flattery to con Miner into completing the task, he served up the phrase as a metaphor for similar experiences.
