Idiom of the Month Dish fit for the gods

Meaning: a very scrumptious or meal

Origin: We can thank Shakespeare for this expression (found in Julius Caesar), but we can also thank him for "foaming at the mouth" (Julius Caesar), "hot blooded" (The Merry Wives of Windsor), "in stitches" (Twelfth Night), "green-eyed monster" (Othello), "wearing your heart on your sleeve" (Othello), and "one fell swoop" (Macbeth)
